#2 – The Three Angels Messages – Take Them Full Strength

What does it mean to give the three angels message full strength? Does it mean you only tell people about the coming judgments of God? Does it mean you declare the apostasies of Babylon and the beast to members in religious movements represented by these symbols? Does it involve proclaiming with greater efficiency than ever before about God's call to worship "Him who created heaven and earth" by the keeping of the Sabbath?

When you refer to a product like soap or scouring powder as being full strength, you believe that it will really do a thorough job of cleansing. You can tell people all about the deceptions of Babylon and the apostasies of the beast, but only when you tell them about the sufficiency of Calvary's cross and the slain Lamb will you proclaim the three angels' message in their full strength.

There is no doubt that the symbols of both Babylon and the beast refer historically to the apostasies of last-day religious movements, temporarily allied with the state, as they seek to deceive and persecute God's faithful people on earth just before the second coming of Jesus. But is your knowledge of prophetic fulfillments of these last-day powers all that is necessary for you to successfully make it through a future time of trouble? Will such prophetic knowledge also help you be an overcomer of sin in your own life? Will an increasing alertness to impending events really cause you to be ready?

In 1888 the Seventh-day Adventist Church held a historic General Conference in Minneapolis. Two young ministers there delivered some most stunning messages about salvation by faith through Christ alone. But opposition to this life-transforming message also arose. Many said they had always believed in salvation by faith in Christ, but they did not want the teaching on salvation in Christ alone to dilute the distinctive prophetic landmarks of the church as found in the three angels' messages.

About three years following this event, someone wrote Ellen White inquiring if this teaching on grace was really the third angel's message. She replied, that the message of justification by faith alone was indeed “the third angels message in verity.” (Review & Herald, April 1, 1890). In her writings she also wrote extensively about the power found in the heart of this message of Christ’s imputed righteousness (justification) to radically break Satan’s power.

“The thought that the righteousness of Christ is imputed to us, not because of any merit on our part, but as a free gift from God, is a precious thought. The enemy of God and man is not willing that this truth should be clearly presented; for he knows that if the people receive it fully, his power will be broken.” The Faith I Live By, p. 111).

Can you the break the power of Satan through the practice of good behaviors? Will abstinence from bad behaviors make you a genuine overcomer? Can you overcome the enemy by alertness to current prophetic events? There is only one way to overcome the enemy, and the witnesses in heaven’s courtroom give their judicial testimony about the sufficiency of that way: “And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death” (Revelation 12:11). Do you believe that these witnesses are telling the truth? If you do, that means that the full strength [undiluted] power of the three angels messages is found in the blood of the Lamb.

*Would you be free from the burden of sin, there’s power in the blood...
Would you be free from your passion and pride, there’s power in the blood...*

Is it possible that we may dilute the three angels’ messages if we primarily believe that it is our knowledge of unfolding prophetic events that will make us overcomers? The undiluted, full strength, three angels’ messages is all about the power of the blood of the slain Lamb. The best way to overcome the beast is still through your genuine worship and adoration of Lamb of God, slain from the foundation of the world.
