#33 – The Judgment as Good News

“Fear God and give glory to Him for the hour of His judgment has come” (Revelation 14:7). If you knew you were heading to court as a defendant, would you not want to postpone the trial? But in the Book of Revelation there is so much more the judgment than being on trial. From heaven’s eyeview there is joyous anticipation of the judgment. Study this book, and along with the rest of Scripture, you will come away with a positive view of the judgment as good news.

Consider these perspectives on the judgment:

- First of all, God’s justice is also an expression of His love. “God and love are synonymous. Love is not an attribute of God, it is God. Whatever God is, love is. If your conception of love does not agree with justice and judgment, purity and holiness, then your idea of love is wrong.” (Oswald Chambers).
- God’s judgment flow out of His goodness. “Not only is it right for God to display anger against sin, I find it impossible to understand how he could do otherwise...God’s compassion flows out of His goodness, and goodness without justice is not goodness. God spares us because He is good, but He could not be good if He were not just.” (A.W. Tozer).
- God’s entire universe looks forward with intensive anticipation and joy to the judgment. “Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and all its fullness. Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it. Then all the trees of the woods will rejoice before the Lord. For He is coming, for He is coming to judge the earth. He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with His truth” (Psalm 96:11-13).
- In the messages to the seven churches, the High Priest of the churches investigates and judges His own people. (Revelation 2 & 3).
- When Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, was installed as Judge there was singing in the courtroom. “And they sang a new song, saying:

You are worth to take the scroll, and to open its seals, for You were slain and have redeemed us to God by Your blood.” (Revelation 5:9).

- In anticipation of the final judgment the twenty-four elders exclaim, “We give You thanks, O Lord God Almighty, the One who is and who was and who is to come, Because You have taken Your great power and has reigned...and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that You should reward Your servants the prophets and the saints, and those who fear Your name, small and great, and should destroy those who destroy the earth” (Revelation 11:18).
- And when God completes the judgments of His wrath, the angels of God and a great multitude register the agreement, “Alleluia! Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to the Lord our God! For true and righteous are His judgment, because He has judged the great harlot...” (Revelation 19:1,2).

The ultimate purpose of the judgment is far greater than our personal salvation. As God saves us, He does it not only because He loves us, but He does it in a way that will bring “praise to the glory of His grace” (Ephesians 1:6). This is how God establishes the security of His government in the universe forever.
