#66 – The Faith of Jesus

Do you recall the words of Maria from the film The Sound of Music, when after a recital of all the things she believes she can accomplish, she finally says, I have confidence in confidence alone! Oh help! If this describes your own current experience, then you also have every reason to say, Oh help!

What is the faith of Jesus mentioned in Revelation 14:12? Is it a belief system? a collection of doctrinal beliefs where we believe the same things that Jesus believed in? No! Faith is not faith in faith, as if by believing we can make things happen and alter our reality. Genuine faith is based on the trustworthiness of Christ.

The “faith of Jesus” is not so much a quality of faith in us, as it is a relationship with Christ sustained by the solid and sure trustworthiness of Jesus Christ. It is not faith of itself, which makes us worthy, but our worthiness is solely derived from the Lamb of God who has been acclaimed ‘worthy.’ The witnesses in heaven’s open courtroom attest to this as they declare: “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and blessing” (Revelation 5:12).

Consider these perspectives on faith:

- Faith is a reasoning trust, a trust which reckons thoughtfully and confidently upon the trustworthiness of God.” - John R. W. Stott (1921- )
- “Faith never knows where it is being led, but it loves and knows the One who is leading.” Anonymous

- “Faith is deliberate confidence in the character of God whose ways you cannot understand at the time.” - Oswald Chambers (1874-1917)

There is no merit in faith as a quality within you. The power of faith rests on the One who through His sacrifice on Calvary’s cross has declared us totally forgiven and complete in Him!

Do you trust the verdict of heaven’s courtroom? Do you trust Him?
