#55 – A Truly Great Worship Experience

At a bus stop I recently saw this advertisement: “For a truly great worship experience, attend _____ church.”

What is a good worship experience? The answer can depend on many factors – the music, the singing, the hymns, the sermon, and, of course, getting to meet and greet your friends. But what about God? If worship is about praising, adoring, and magnifying Him, could you have a good worship experience if it was just you and God - and no one else?

What if you only came away from a worship service with an acute and overwhelming sense of your own sinfulness – Would that be a good and great worship experience? That is what happened to the prophet Isaiah.

“Woe is me, for I am undone! Because I am a man of unclean lips...for my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts” (Isaiah 6:5,6).

What if your worship experience only consisted in coming face to face with your own sin? And being overwhelmed by God’s holiness, you would cry out, “Hide Thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities” (Psalm 51:9).

When we in worship face Jesus, will we not also like John the Revelator fall “at His feet as dead” (Revelation 1:17)? This is the door of entry into a truly life-changing worship experience because the first prerequisite for a resurrection is death!

To come face to face with Jesus and with our own sin can be the greatest worship we have ever experienced. Face the reality of our own terminal sin disease. And then hear the words of Jesus, “Do not be afraid! I am the First and the Last. I am He who lives and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death” (Revelation 1:17,18).

A good worship experience does not consist in the fulfillment of our demands and expectations for religious entertainment. In a truly great worship experience we meet God. A truly great worship experience is to discover that Jesus’ greatest desire is to expose to us the terminal nature of our sin disease (“dead in trespasses and sins”) in order that He may give us His resurrection life.

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain!
