#60 – Worship Satisfaction

How satisfied are you with worship? I am not here talking about your personal approval, likes or dislikes, with the contents of the service (music, sermon, prayers etc.), but how satisfied are you with God Himself?

God designed worship to meet and satisfy the deepest needs of our heart. He designed us to know that only in Him can we truly find lasting satisfaction. And the Psalmist expressed his personal delight in such worship where God Himself is the focus of our adoration and praise.

- “Because Your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You. Thus I will bless You while I live. I will lift up my hands in Your name. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, and my mouth shall praise you with joyful lips” (Psalm 63:3-5).
- “You will show me the path of life. In your presence is fulness of joy; at Your right hand there are pleasures for evermore” (Psalm 16:11).
- “How excellent is Thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Thy wings. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of Thy house; and Thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures” (Psalm 36:7,8).
- “O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusts in Him” (Psalm 34:8).

In a city where I once lived there were numerous stores that sell ethnic foods – Filipino, Korean, Indonesian, Brazilian, Mexican et cetera. Ethnic foods are essentially comfort foods, because they can often serve as reminders of past good memories from childhood and youth. When many years ago I arrived in the United States I had a particular longing for Danish ethnic foods – Danish pastries. And one day I picked up a product labeled “Danish” only to discover that it was not like the Danish pastries I had grown up with. Enterprising bakeries all over the U.S. had for marketing purposes discovered that the name “Danish” had in it a tremendous sales potential. My personal opinion of that product was that it was an extremely poor imitation. I had grown up tasting the REAL THING, and there was no comparison. That is, until about 20 years ago I visited the town of Solvang, California. There are in Solvang four authentic Danish bakeries. And there is nothing to compare with original, authentic Danish pastries.

Our great God wants us in worship so become so satisfied with Him and His goodness that we will be able to say about our worship that we have personally tasted and seen that the Lord is good.

Such worship satisfaction will be one of the greatest deterrents against the make-believe offers of the beast. Our God wants us to experientially find such satisfaction in Himself. He wants to protect us against the worship of the beast through the genuine and satisfying worship of the Lamb. How could you ever settle for a cheap imitation when you have tasted the real thing?

“O taste and see that the Lord is good!”
